Love the characters and their friendships. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A wonderful little book By Inna Sokolova We love Chris Riddell's books and this one does not disappoint. This is a review of a 8 years old reader who insisted on giving it 5 stars: "A very exciting and wonderful book that can take your breath away in some places because it has a lot of unexpected and surprising things. And of course I loved pictures". I'd did too, and I might add that the book will also please an adult reader with funny, imaginative tale full of literary and musical references. 1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. On time and on point! By LilMar Great shipping time and my granddaughter loved it, thank you!

People are flocking to Ghastly-Gorm Hall from far and wide to compete in Lord Goth's Literary Dog Show. The esteemed judges are in place and the contestants are all ready to win. Sir Walter Splott is preparing his Lanarkshire Lurcher, Plain Austen is preening her Hampshire Hound and Homily Dickinson and her Yankee Poodle are raring to go. But there's something strange going on at Ghastly-Gormmdash;mysterious footprints, howls in the night and some suspiciously chewed shoes. Can Ada, the Attic Club and their new friends the Vicarage sisters (Charlotte, Emily and Anne) work out what's going on before the next full moon?

About the Author Chris Riddell is the 2015-2017 UK Children's Laureate. His books have won a number of major prizes, including two Kate Greenaway Medals. Goth Girl and the Ghost of a Mouse won the Costa Children's Book Award 2013. He is the coauthor of the bestselling series The Edge Chronicles, and the author of the Ottoline series.
